Possibly the L. Merryman house on the 1850 map, the building is not shown on the 1877 atlas. Recently restored, this clapboard-covered vernacular frame house of two stories has interior chimneys in the ends of the gable roof.